Description:

We present to your attention a nice studio in the complex Tarsis, Sunny Beach. The apartment is located on the underground floor, but has its own exit to the terrace in the form of an English courtyard. In principle, this option is chosen by those people who have small children, because you can let the children play in the fresh air and they will still remain under your supervision.

The Tarsis complex itself offers guests and owners a variety of services - swimming pools, a nice large playground, lots of greenery and sun loungers, several restaurants. By the way, one of the pools is heated, and in one of the restaurants you can order a buffet breakfast for the whole family for the desired period of time - very convenient, isn't it?

One of the advantages is the average size of the support fee - only 8 euros per square meter for such a variety of services. We recommend you to see this complex in person and you will fall in love with it!
