Description:

Excellent proposal for lovers of mountainous terrain by the sea - bedroom apartment in Sveti Vlas.
Everyone knows that St. Vlas is famous for its unique geographical position. Due to the proximity of mountains and sea creates a unique microclimate that has a beneficial effect on the treatment of respiratory diseases.
The apartment is suitable for year-round, and for summer use. I want to note the popularity of this complex for the delivery of apartments in rent in summer season. As the apartment is furnished with typical furniture from the Builder, then you have to try and successfully rent it out through the reception complex.
